Who is the Greatest?

In God's kingdom - where the values of the world are turned upside down - the greatest person is the one who serves others - whose life is focused on loving God and loving others.

This passage invites us to reflect on what it means to truly follow Jesus. How can we seek after glory and honor and expect others to adhere to our every whim and want, when Jesus our Lord and Savior gave his life for us. This means any notions we have of rank, honor and privilege are out of place. Self-seeking has no place in the church or in our lives, because when we are self-seeking, then we become the object of our worship.

Jesus' life and teaching turns the worldly understanding of greatness and great works on its head. The greatest work ever done was accomplished by one who gave his life for others. Self-giving service is the only greatness recognized by God.

Martin Luther King Jr said it this way:
everybody can be great because anybody can serve.

So, our Scriptures this morning challenge us about our notions of greatness.

Two questions to ponder this week:

How are we serving others?

How is God's love reflected through us?
